Hello Mr. O'Toole and team.

Over the past few months I have sent the question below to you as well as several other cabinet ministers, but I have not received even the courtesy of a short "yes/no" answer.

My social media feeds are full of your pre-election messages hoping to gain support. With respect, simply replying to people directly asking you a question will go much farther toward gaining that support than any number of tweets and Facebook videos.

If this is a topic that no one in your cabinet has an interest in, I would simply like clarification that that is indeed the case.

Thanks in advance for taking a moment to consider and reply.

Matt Melvin.

Subject: Will Canada be in communication with the US re: UAPTF report?

Hello Minister Bezan and team,

Over the last several years, the US gov't has confirmed that their military (Navy) has been encountering "aircraft" that outperform anything in the US inventory.

This is a compilation of just some of the compelling information that has come to light:

The US gov't is taking this so seriously that they have formed a task force to investigate and report back less than 180 days from now.

The United States' Senate Intelligence Committee, through the report on the Intelligence Authorization Act for fiscal 2021, has given the Director of National Intelligence, in consultation with the Secretary of Defense, a mandate to submit a report on unidentified aerial phenomena (UAPs) within 180 days or the Act being signed into law.

Our inquiries to Canada's Department of National Defence as to whether our own government will be in communication with US counterparts on this topic remain unanswered.

As Defence Critic, will you bring this to the attention of the Minister of Defence and ask why Canada is seemingly ignoring such an important topic?

Thank you in advance,

Matt Melvin, UAPMediaKit.ca
